(AFFILIATED TO THE PANJAB UNIVERSITY)

BRIEF HISTORY

On the partition of the country in August, 1947, the Mayo School of Art, Lahore was left in Pakistan. As its successor institution, Government College of Art (formerly known as the Government School of Art, Punjab and subsequently Government College of Art and Craft, Chandigarh) was established by the Punjab Government on 16th August, 1951. Following the reorganization of the Punjab State with effect from 1st November, 1966, the control of this institution has come over to the Chandigarh Administration.

2. LOCATION

The institution is situated in Sector 10-C, adjoining the Government Museum and Art Gallery, Chandigarh, at a distance of nearly 2 kms from the local Bus Stand in Sector 17.

3. INTRODUCTION:

Government College of Art is an institution for advanced training in Visual Arts (Creative and Applied). It is affiliated with the Panjab University, Chandigarh. It offers Master of Fine Art Courses in Applied Art, Painting, Sculpture and Graphics (Print--making). These will provide advanced training for talented students/ scholars from India and abroad. The emphasis will be on practical studio work, prescribed theory subjects and research in selected fields. The Endeavour would be to prepare the students for the changed and emerging art environment and practice.

These are full time courses and will be of Two Years duration.

4. NOMENCLATURE OF THE COURSES AND INTAKE:
